25X1 INFORMATION BULLETIN 1/51 AND 2/51 ON GDR REPARATIONS TO THE USSR (21 pp)

25X1

25X1 This 21-page [redacted] printed GDR Information Bulletins on Reparations Matters, marked Vertrauliche Dienstsache (confidential official matter), with limited circulation.

Information Bulletin on Reparations Matters Number 1/51 (8 pages)

Introductory remarks deal with the great importance of reparations orders and the careful observance of delivery schedules. It is noted that the USSR canceled 50 percent of the remaining reparations obligations because the GDR had fulfilled the delivery schedules in the past.

Regulations on reparations matters which are still ~~valid~~ valid are listed.

The following procedures are described:

- I. Procedures for placing reparations orders
- II. Regulations for executing orders (special regulations for metallurgical orders, materials supply, sub-contractors, suppliers, control over the execution of orders, shipping readiness, reports of deliveries made).
- III. Reports on the status of deliveries
- IV. General remarks

This bulletin also furnishes definitions of terminology used.

Information Bulletin on Reparations Matters Number 2/51 (3 pages and an attachment of ¹⁰/₈ pages)

Introduction: The importance of transportation in the fulfillment of reparations orders is described.

Transportation regulations are described in great detail in the bulletin. For example, procedures to be followed in securing freight space, filling out of shipping orders, distribution of the copies of the shipping orders, addresses of DERUTRA (German-Soviet Transportation Corporation) offices, loading of goods, covering documents, packing and marking of shipments, and weight determination of goods ready for shipment.

The 10-page attachment furnishes detailed instructions on packing and marking of reparations goods.
